Trail/25/50/75* TYM 50
EDRA Sanctioned/Recorded Lifetime Miles
PNER Points
Clinic Friday at 2pm--TBD

CAMP: Central Washington, between Coulee City and Hartline, Washington off Highway 2. There are services in Coulee City and Hartline. Easy access and lots of parking. Spread hay & manure, pack out all garbage, no campfires, and PLEASE repair any holes your horse digs. Camp and roads are nice and easy access for large rigs with lots of parking. Please, 1 horse per corral strongly preferred. No unsupervised dogs, lots of room to take them away from camp to play safely.

From the East: Take Hwy 2 from Spokane, WA 85 miles to mile post 197, camp will be on your right.
From the West: Hwy 17 to Coulee City, WA go 2 miles to the Hwy 2 junction, take a right towards Spokane, camp is just past mile post 196. There is a Google map on my website: www.coyoteridgeride.weebly.com

GENERAL: All EDRA & PNER rules apply. Hoof protection strongly recommended; helmets required when mounted. David Honan doing photography along Banks Lake, not to mention the lady that sits on her roof to get pics!

TRAILS: Keep ribbons on your right! A variety of trails, some technical with some rock but a lot that you can make really good time on with the gravel roads and crossing the cut wheat fields, beautiful views! There will likely be no water crossings this time of year. One out vet check area for 50-75 mile distances; there will be hay and water for horses and riders provided at the vet area. Trailer provided to take your out check goodies for you. We will have tracks for Ride with GPS available and ribbons. We shouldn't have any gates or cows to deal with in October.

FOOD: Dinner will be provided Saturday afternoon at 6 for riders and volunteers, $10 for extra meals; awards to follow. If you don't come to ride, come volunteer; we'll feed ya good! Come prepared to have dinner in the common area and do some socializing by the common fire.

VETTING: Marlene Poe, DVM is Head Vet. Vetting to start Friday afternoon.

ENTRY & DISCOUNTS: TYM Relay~$105 per rider; 75~$150; 50~$120; 25~$110; Intro~$50. Half off for reciprocating Ride Managers, Jrs (1/2 price) will ride FREE with the generous EDRA Jrs.
