The ride is north of Spokane, WA, at Mt. Spokane State Park, with ride camp at Selkirk Ski Lodge. This is a mountain ride with beautiful scenic vistas and forest trails, using recreational trails and roads located on the park and private lands. Overall, the area has very good footing with a few rocky sections. Hoof protection is recommended. This is a cozy, "get-to-know-your-neighbor" type camp. Parking assistants will be available.

There will be burgers/chips on the BBQ late afternoon Saturday for all riders and volunteers. Others can purchase for $10.

Directions

FROM I-90

Take Exit 287/Argonne Rd, and continue north for about 8.5 miles. Take the first right/exit at the Hwy 206 traffic circle, and follow the signs for about 14.5 miles to Mt. Spokane State Park & Selkirk Ski Lodge.

FROM THE NORTH: HWY 395

Take a left (east) on Dennison-Chattaroy Rd. Turn right (south) on Hwy 2. From Hwy 2 take a left (east) on Hwy 206, which has signs for Mt. Spokane State Park. Continue east, taking the second right/exit at the traffic circle, and follow the signs.
